CLASSIFICATION

Approved For Release 2002/06/08 FCAR

INFORMATION REPORT

CD NO.

25X1A

COUNTRY

China/Southeast Assa

DATE DISTR. 31 JAN 51

SUBJECT

NO. OF PAGES

25X1C

Chinese Communist Intelligence Activities

Directed Toward Southeast Asia

PLACE

DATE OF

INFO.

ACQUIRED

RETURN TO CIA LIBRARY

NO. OF ENCLS.

SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

25X1X

- In November 1949, after the Chinese mainland had fallen into Communist hands, the Communists decided to develop the domestic struggle of Communism into a struggle abroad under the leadership of LI Li-san, Minister of Labor; LI Kienung (文 克 夏)。Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs and chief of the Second Department of the Communist Military Council: TSOU Te-pieng (多 大 朋)。chief of the Intelligence General Administration, deputy chief of the Second Department of the Military Council, and secretary-general of the Social Department of the Communist Central Politburo; and SUN (3%), chief of the Second Department of the Central Politburo. SUN was to be responsible for liaison and technical details of the operation.
- 2. In May 1950, the Chinese Communists set up a basic organization for their intelligence agents who were to operate in Southeast Asia. Agents were under the direct control of the Second Department of the Communist Hilitary Council and the Second Department of the Central Politburo. They were assigned the following targets:
 - Seek close cooperation with military resistance groups.
 - Establish a firm propaganda agency.

CLASSIFICATION

1

- Instigate riots in schools of overseas Chinese.
- Try by all means to win over faculties in Chinese schools and other intellectuals.
- Watch doctors in various hospitals who engage in underground activities.
- Form a triangular liaison system between Siam, Burma, and Hacao.
- g. Promote the construction of the 362-mile Kwangsi-Indochina railway as a principal measure required to accomplish the Communist policy of taking over Viet Nam.
- h. Observe closely activities of various missions to the Philippines, Thailand and Burna.

CONFIDENTIAL

SHALE	K_	MAAA		NSRE		DISTR	IBUTION	i				7	_		7
ARMY		AIR		FBI			1			1
4 fs.	1									J1					 !
		This do	cum	ent is he	reby r	egraded to		ü	JEWNIEN	it b	e	. 0	2%) \
		CONFID	ENT	IAL in ac	cordan	ce with the		×	• Chap	ge	ha El	abs) T	\mathcal{T}	\
						from the		k t	MD de	is.	ried\	11.	۲١	1
				Central I	-	nce to the	8	1/2	is s. d	hah	led }	toå \ī	[[	s) c

Next Review Pate of Release 2002/08/08 : CIA-RDP82

25X1

Next 1 Page(s) In Document Exempt

Approved For Release 2002/08/08 : CIA CDP A 125 D 100 100 14-9

		Chimal In Malua C. Review	25/ IA
		-3-
25X1A	•	Comment. At a September 1950 conference in Peining regarding Chinese Communist entrance into the Forcen war, LI Li-san was one of
	1	those who instated upon Chinese participation; see	25X1A
25X1A		Comment. These assignments are similar to directives issued to South China offices in the fall of 1950. See
25X1A	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	Comment. In August, FAME Forg called a conference of Appliers of the Communist Special Commissioner's Office in Manua and Assuel a min ber of directives, and of Which was to create incidents to display the	3-ma
		Massa government.	25X1A
25X1A	*	Gorgent, Chinese Communist plans for entablishing at agency in Henry Kraz in April 1950 to collect intelligence on Southeast Apia and	1
		South China were reported in	25X1A
25X1A	*	political commissar of the Contral-South District Command and deputy political commissar of the 4 Field Army.	3
25X1A 25X1A		Comment. UU Yn attended a conformer in Day 1980 requirely the

3. One

CONFIDENTIAL